Incep sa apara primele reactii dure, din zonele de mare influenta ale Europei, impotriva numirii procuroarei Laura Kovesi la sefia viitorului Parchet European, numire care a avut in spate inalte aranjamente politice intre sefi de stat, care nu au tinut cont de criteriile profesionale aferente unei asemenea functii, si nici de faptul ca Guvernul Romaniei nu a sustinut aceasta numire, ba dimpotriva, a sesizat ca o persoana cu rezultatele profesionale deplorabile ale lui Kovesi nu poate ocupa o asemenea demnitate. Voci importante din Anglia anunta faptul ca traiesc cu temerea ca Laura Kovesi – comparata cu un “procuror stalinist” - se poate dovedi un cosmar pentru orice europarlamentar si pentru orice stat membru datorita faptului ca va putea reedita procedeele sale abuzive din perioada cat a condus Directia Nationala Anticoruptie si la nivelul Uniunii Europene.

Prestigiosul cotidian britanic The Telegraph (una din cele mai influente publicatii cu impact major atat in SUA, cat si in statele importante ale Europei) a publicat in data de 18 octombrie 2019 un articol devastator la adresa noii sefe a Parchetului european, care poate deschide inceputul unui val de contestari europene impotriva Laurei Kovesi. Sub semnatura analistului politic Damien Phillips, specialist in relatii internationale si director al Proactive Public Affairs – care s-a documentat inclusiv pe baza articolelor de referinta din Lumea Justitiei

Publicam in continuare un fragment relevant din analiza publicata de The Telegraph, care s-a bazat inclusiv pe analiza articolelor publicate de Lumea Justitiei referitoare la inventarul achitarii incasate de DNA sub domnia Laurei Kovesi: – (vezi facsimil 1 si 2)

...De departe, cea mai controversata alegere a fost confirmarea recenta a Laurei Codruta Kovesi in calitate de procuror sef al UE. Hotarata sa aibe cel mai rau posibil candidat care sa indeplineasca acest rol, UE s-a asigurat ca procurorul rau famat, a trecut rapid prin cadrul procesului, renuntand la propriile sale reguli prin care, titularul unui astfel de birou important trebuie sa aibe 'standarde etice inalte si integritate personala' si ignorand pledoariile guvernului ales al Romaniei, care o concediase ca sef al Directiei Nationale Anticoruptie a tarii pentru abuz in serviciu.

Kovesi este lipsita de reflectie in ceea ce priveste utilizarea ei de ascultari ilegale, iar analistii si-au exprimat temerile ca va folosi tactici similare in UE odata ce departamentul ei va deveni activ in 2020. Numirea ei este un cadou pentru Johnson (n.n. - Boris Johnson, primul ministru al Marii Britanii) si un cosmar pentru fiecare eurodeputat dar si stat membru al UE, care ar putea sa se confrunte cu un lider conservator, cu un nou mandat hotarat sa extraga concesii semnificative in continuare de la UE pentru frontul lor si un procuror Stalinist praduind printre randurile lor din spate.

But the most controversial choice by far has been the recent confirmation of Laura Codruta Kovesi (<https://hrwf.eu/wp-content/uploads/2019/09/From-the-Judiciary-in-Romania-to-the-EPPQ-in-Brussels-%E2%80%93-The-Tactical-Field-of-the-Romanian-Secret-Service-1-2.pdf>) as the new EU Chief Prosecutor. Determined to have the worst possible candidate fill the role, the EU ensured that the disreputable prosecutor was fast-tracked through the process, waiving its own rules that the holder of such an important office have “high ethical standards and personal integrity” and ignoring the pleas of Romania’s elected government who had sacked her as head of the country’s National Anticorruption Directorate for abuse of office (<https://www.bbc.co.uk/news/world-europe-49759680>).

Kovesi’s resumé includes: presiding over the biggest spy corruption scandal since the fall of the Soviet Union by illegally colluding with Romania’s secret intelligence service (<https://hrwf.eu/wp-content/uploads/2019/09/From-the-Judiciary-in-Romania-to-the-EPPQ-in-Brussels-%E2%80%93-The-Tactical-Field-of-the-Romanian-Secret-Service-1-2.pdf>) to use the judicial system as a ‘tactical field of intervention’, undermining the rule of law through unlawful detentions backed by allegedly falsified evidence

(<https://balkaninsight.com/2018/02/14/top-romanian-anti-graft-prosecutor-kovesi-will-not-step-down-02-14-2018/>), and a suspiciously high 92% conviction rate that is belied by the acquittal

(<https://www.luju.ro/international/english/kovesi-poses-in-front-of-the-united-nations-here-is-the-list-of-resonating-acquittals-which-the-chief-prosecutor-of-the-nda-has-kept-from-the-un-laura-kovesi-bragged-about-getting-guilty-verbatim-at-new-york-but-didn-t-breathe-a-word-about-the-disaster-of>)

of nearly 80 high profile defendants in her last six months in the job alone – defendants her department had confidently declared guilty. Kovesi is unrepentant about her use of illegal wiretaps (<https://www.rferl.org/a/interview-laura-codruta-koevesi-the-b%3%Aate-noire-of-romanian-corruption/29944326.html>), and analysts have expressed fears that she will use similar tactics across the EU once her department goes live in 2020. Her appointment is a gift to Johnson and a nightmare for every MEP and EU member state, who may well face a Tory leader with a new mandate determined to extract further significant EU concessions to their front and a Stalinist prosecutor marauding through their ranks to the rear.

Kovesi poses in front of the United Nations: Here is the list of resonating acquittals which the Chief Prosecutor of the NDA has kept from the UN. Laura Kovesi bragged about getting “guilty” verdicts at New York, but didn’t breathe a word about the disaster of the acquittals. Just during 2018, the NDA has already gotten more than 70 acquittals and closed at least 10 cases

*“During the last five years, the NDA has gotten on trial more than 68 dignitaries/high-ranking officials: 14 ministers and ex-ministers and 53 members of Parliament. Of these, 27 dignitaries have already been found guilty. The rest of the cases are still in progress. During the same term, the NDA has taken measures to insure more than 2.3 milliard dollars.
